Notes:

- a) These code tables contain international standard codes and/or codes customized/defined for GETS. Values for each code table are tabulated in the sequence of codes in Part II below.
- b) The international standard codes advised in some UN/ECE Trade Facilitation Recommendations are quoted from the website (www.unece.org/cefact) of the United Nations Centre for Trade Facilitation and Electronic Business (UN/CEFACT), which is the United Nations body in charge of the development and maintenance of these trade facilitation recommendations and standards.
- c) The customized codes are allocated for GETS but not yet defined in the international standards.
- d) Values of code tables for GETS (TDEC and DCP) are effective from January 2004. Values of code tables for GETS (EMAN) are effective from August 2005. Values of code tables for GETS (CO) are effective from July 2006.
- e) GETS (PN) service was obsolete on 10 December 2014.
